Dear Mark,

I wanted to drop you a short note to thank you and to express our satisfaction with participating in the Marketeer Magazine. We've had a great deal of response from our articles and can attribute actual new business to the publicity we've received. I was amazed at how many people saw our article and commented favorably on it.

I've encouraged other ExecuTrain offices in your other markets to participate. I would also recommend The Marketeer to businesses in Omaha who are trying to generate new business and get their story out to the Omaha community.

Thanks again for your genuine concern about us and helping our business grow.

Sincerely yours,

Barbee Davis
Vice President of Sales and Training
